

Doctors, pharmacies and getting repaid

French B1 (intermediate) · Test

Name: _____ Date: _____ Class: _____ Score: ____ / 20

Level: French B1 (CEFR intermediate) · Standards: CEFR B1, Reading

Time: 45 minutes · 8 questions · Total: 20 points · No dictionary

Question 1 Vocabulary (3 points)

Write the French word.

- a. prescription (1 point)
- b. complementary insurance (1 point)
- c. regular doctor (1 point)

Question 2 True or false (3 points)

Write true or false.

- a. The carte Vitale is a pharmacy discount card. (1 point)
- b. The number 15 calls the SAMU. (1 point)
- c. A mutuelle can repay part of what remains to pay. (1 point)

Question 3 Avoir mal à (2 points)

Complete with the right article.

- a. Mon fils a mal ___ oreille. (1 point)
- b. Elle a mal ___ jambes. (1 point)

Question 4 Translate (2 points)

Translate into French.

- a. I have had a headache since yesterday. (1 point)
- b. Take this medicine twice a day. (1 point)

Question 5 Reading: an appointment slip (4 points)

Cabinet du Dr Sow, généraliste
 Rendez-vous : mercredi 12 juin à 16 h 20
 Apportez votre carte Vitale
 Annulation : 24 heures à l'avance

Slip for the reading question.

Read the slip, then answer in English.

- a. With whom is the appointment? (1 point)
- b. What day and time? (1 point)
- c. What must the patient bring? (1 point)
- d. When should a cancellation be made? (1 point)

Question 6 Subjunctive (2 points)

Complete: Il faut que vous ____.

- a. (prendre) ce médicament (1 point)
- b. (être) à jeun (1 point)

Question 7 Find the mistake (2 points)

Correct the mistake.

- a. J'ai mal à le genou. (1 point)
- b. Je suis malade depuis il y a trois jours. (1 point)

Question 8 Short writing (2 points)

Write three or four sentences to a pharmacist: you have a cough since two days and a sore throat; you ask for advice.